Mission:

Ripple Theatre Project is committed to making live theatre accessible to South Sound communities: producing and presenting theatre that celebrates our stories, our humanity and the magic of experiencing live theatre together.

What is the DuPont Performing Arts Walk:

The DuPont Performing Arts Walk is a Performing Arts event that brings dancers, musicians and actors to DuPont. Audience members will be led to different performance spaces. At each location they will see a different performance by a local performing arts organization.

Why support the Performing Arts Walk?

- This event is entirely unique to DuPont.
- This event brings quality performances to our community.
- Drive traffic to your business through engaging local entertainment.
- We will promote you to all our audience members and make sure all participants know our partners!

What we can offer:

- Exposure to our audience.
- Advertisement in the 2021 DuPont Performing Arts Walk Program
- Name or logo on the Website
- Social Media recognition
- Community exposure and awareness of your business or organization
- Name or logo on volunteer staff/usher t-shirts
- Signage at box office table or performance space

Performing Arts Walk at a glance:

- 4-5 Performing Arts Organizations (Dance, Chamber Ensemble, Theatre and musical theatre)
- 8-10 Ten-Minute performances
- Audience walks to each performance space.
- Collaboration with local performing arts groups. Showcasing local entertainment options.
